Opening 1 / 4

Hi, everyone. I'm Omar, and Lily is my cousin. Our families share every holiday, so we've sat next to each other at the kids' table for twenty years.

Part 2 2 / 4

Here is what I remember most. Every year, Lily saved me the last roll, and every year she pretended it was an accident. It never was. She notices what people love, and she quietly makes sure they get it. At twelve, she gave me her seat by the window on a long drive and told everyone she was tired of the view.

Part 3 3 / 4

Chris, that's who you're marrying. She will save you the last roll, and she'll act like it was an accident. Say thank you anyway, and mean it.

Closing 4 / 4

Lily, I'm proud of you. Chris, welcome to the family. May you have a lifetime of warm rolls and easy drives, and a lot of laughter on the way. Everyone, please raise a glass to Lily and Chris.
