Opening 1 / 4

Hi, everyone, and thank you for coming. I'm Carol, Mina's mom. I'll keep this short, because the band is already tuning up and I don't want to stand between you and the dance floor.

Part 2 2 / 4

When Mina was little, she saved the last bite of everything for me. The last cookie, the last strawberry, the last noodle. She would hold it up on a spoon and say, this one is yours. Nobody asked her to. It was simply who she was at three, and it's who she is today. She still does it, in bigger ways, with her time and her attention.

Part 3 3 / 4

Dana, I've seen her do it for you. I've also seen you do it for her, and that's how I know. Thank you for being so kind to my girl, and please stay as long as you like.

Closing 4 / 4

Mina, I love you. Be gentle with each other, and keep saving each other the best part. Thank you all for being the people they chose to share this day with. Everyone, please lift a glass to Mina and Dana.
